SITUATION IS SERIOUS

From Caruthersville to Baton Rouge
River Rose Rapidly.

A DANGEROUS BREAK

At Hollybush, Twenty Miles North of Memphis, Water Was Running
Over the Levee a Distance of Six Hundred Feet.

Memphis, March 16.—The flood situation between Caruthersville, Mo., and Baton Rouge, La., is serious. The river is rising rapidly and it will be a little short of marvelous if the levees hold the great volume of rushing water. The gauge at Memphis Sunday night marked 28.5 feet, a rise of one and two-tenths feet since Saturday night. This is the highest water ever recorded here and Local Observer Tmery, of the weather bureau, said that 29 1-2 feet would be registered by Tuesday. Those interested have been warned to prepare for a stage of forty feet. The situation in and around Memphis is becoming more serious. Without a single exception the numerous lumber plants in North Memphis have suspended operations owing to the encroachment of the waters. At Fourth and Market streets people are moving about in skiffs and the street railway has annulled all schedules in this part of the city. Three of the Illinois Central tracks are under water, north of Auction street, although traffic has not been suspended on them, but if the water continues to rise trouble is expected there.

At Ensley, six miles below Memphis, 500 feet of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley tracks are inundated, but they were "cribbed" over and trains are running through.

The Choctaw railroad has suspended operations between Hopeville and Wolf river and all trains are being sent over the Memphis bridge.

A dangerous place in the levee is reported from Hollybush, twenty miles north of here. Engineers of the St. Francis levee board, with a steamboat, went to the scene. It was found that water was running over the levee for a distance of 600 feet. Men and material were sent there and a strong fight is being made to hold the embankment, but it is believed by many that a break will occur.

Refugees with hundreds of horses and mules continue to arrive here on every boat.

Thousands of people lined the river banks Sunday watching the swift-moving current and several excursion steamers carried many more up and down the river so that a good view of the vast expanse of water could be had.

Storm to Sunshine.

New Orleans, March 16.—The gauge here Sunday night read a little over 19.3, which is only two-tenths below the record of 1897, but the sudden change from stormy weather to sunshine and brightness has given renewed hope all along the line. Saturday's terrific rain was a test in itself and not a sign of weakness was displayed. Workmen are being enlisted and those who were ready to surrender weak places to the river's rush have gained courage and say any volume of water can be met. A week ago it was thought there would surely be a crevasse at Arlington, a short distance below Baton Rouge.

In Better Spirits.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 16.—The river gauge here Sunday evening registered 48.7, a two-tenths rise since morning. Sunday was the first clear, sunshiny day in two weeks, and with a cessation of the rains there is a corresponding increase in the spirits of the dwellers behind the levees. Late reports state that all the embankments are holding on both sides of the river in this section. The saw mill district, in the suburb of Waltersville, on the lake front, is threatened by back water and a complete shut down of all the working plants will probably result.

Sacks, Wheelbarrows and Shovels.

Natchez, Miss., March 16.—Captain Harry S. Douglas of the United States engineer corps has ordered 75,000 feet of lumber, 49,000 sacks and a carload of wheelbarrows and shovels for use on the levees between Vicksburg and Natchez.

Fallen a Foot.

Cincinnati, March 16.—The Ohio river has fallen a foot without any rise to follow, so that the flood conditions in the lower Ohio valley will also soon be relieved. The Ohio river is now falling from Pittsburg to eastern Indiana.

Packery and Shoe Factory.

Monterey, Mex., March 16.—John W. de Kay, secretary of the United States Packing company, of which Alfred Bishop Mason is president, has applied to the Nuevo Leon state government for a concession for the establishment of a packing house and shoe factory in this state. His proposition contemplates the investment of not less than $1,000,000 in the two concerns.

MERELY SENSATIONAL

Reports Sent Out About Breaks in Levees Are Untrue.

NEW ORLEANS SAFE.

In the Event of the Water Getting Through the Levees Above the City Two Lakes Will Take it to the Gulf.

New Orleans, March 16.—The river has been stationary since Saturday morning. Below Memphis the river continued to rise slowly except at New Orleans, where it fell one foot in twenty-four hours. The reading was the same to-day. Absence of rise is due to favorable winds, which greatly accelerated the flow to the gulf. The flood is being carried out with great rapidity.

Better weather conditions have improved the conditions generally and are allowing temporary levees to harden. The work of the levee boards continues unabated and men and material are abundant on the front. Sensational stories which have been sent out from New Orleans to the effect that the levees below Canal street were broken and Fench quarter is two feet under water and embankments below Baton Rouge gone, flooding 200 miles of territory and seriously endangering New Orleans, are absolutely without foundation. New Orleans would not be menaced by any break between the state capital and any point above the city, since the water will be carried into Lakes Maurepas and Ponchartrain and thence to the gulf.

HIGHEST STAGE.

In North Memphis People Have Had to Abandon Their Homes.

Memphis, Tenn., March 16.—The river gauge marked 39.1 feet. This is the highest stage of water ever known, and government officials predict a maximum of forty feet will be reached. In North Memphis the situation is assuming a serious phase. Hundreds of people are abandoning their homes, and every industry located along Wolf river is being closed down. Street car service in this part of the city is practically abandoned and skiffs have been brought into requisition. The Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railway annulled several of its schedules because of washouts south of here.

Reports from Hollybush, north of here, state the water is running over the top of the levee at a weak point about 1000 yards long. Hundreds of sacks of sand are being thrown about the levee.

Dyersburg, Tenn., reports immense damage to that section by high water. Many planters in the Mississippi bottoms have fled to the hills for safety and report houses are being washed away.

Above Danger Line and Rising.

Natchez, Miss., March 16.—The river gauge reads 47.8 feet, or 3.8 feet above the danger line, and rising. Weather clear, which enables levee forces to put in full time strengthening the embankments.

HYDROPHOBIA EPIDEMIC.

About Ninety Per Cent. of the Canines
Have Been Put to Death.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 17.—A special to the News from Kingston, Tenn., reports an epidemic of hydrophobia among dogs and cattle in that vicinity. Several persons have been bitten by vicious dogs and cattle are dying in large numbers. The statement is made that 90 per cent of the dogs in that vicinity have been killed to prevent the spread of the disease.

BOILER BLEW UP.

One Man Was Killed, Two Wounded and an End Blown Out.

Toledo, O., March 16.—In a boiler explosion which wrecked a large portion of the East Toledo mills of the Republic Iron and Steel company, one man was killed and two others burned so badly that they may die. The dead are: John Thompson, water tender, aged forty-one, unmarried. Injured: Melvin Updegraff, aged thirty, night engineer; Henry Fust, aged fifty-six, watchman. It will never be known how the accident occurred, as the dead man was the only one near the boiler. The top boiler, weighing a ton, was blown through the air for half a mile, passing just over the tops of twenty houses and finally gouging a hole fully twenty feet deep in the ground. One entire end of the mill was blown out, causing a property damage of $40,000.

Knapp's Preliminary Trial.

Hamilton, O., March 16.—Alfred Knapp was called before Mayor Bosch for preliminary trial. Knapp was brought over from jail handcuffed. He was calm as usual. His lawyers, Darby & Thomas of Cincinnati, went into consultation with Mayor Bosch and the prisoner in the mayor's private office.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MAR. 17, 1903

BOYD OF HILL COUNTY.

George Wendell, the Houston Post staff correspondent at Austin, writes an interesting column about the first gentle moving of the waters anent the coming campaign of 1904. In it are mentioned some possibilities for the governorship and the attorney general's office, and he closes with the statement that Capt. S. R. Boyd of Hill county, who is chairman of the house finance committee, is mentioned in connection with the state treasurer's office.

It can be said in behalf of Mr. Boyd that he is constantly making friends, and he does it without seeming to know it. He has the reputation of being a hard worker at any public business that is set before him; giving the state conscientious service, at no sparing of himself. It is too early for the friends of Mr. Boyd to announce him for any place, for there is such a thing as running your horse down before the race begins. But it is always in order to commend excellent service by a public man when he deserves it. Mr. Boyd's acquaintance with the financial affairs of the state is thorough, and he is a cool-headed, careful and hard working official whose ability deserves more extended employment in a higher sphere.

Mr. William Joel Bryan, father of Mr. Guy M. Bryan of this city died at his home at Durazno, Brazoria county, Friday, March 13. He was born in Missouri in 1831, and his mother was the only sister of the great emprisario and Texas patriot, Stephen F. Austin. Mr. Bryan himself served the cause of Texas' independence valiantly. He lived at Durazno, continuously for more than 60 years. He was a stock raiser and sugar planter. He had five sons and four daughters and four sons survive him. His biographer says of him: A giant oak of 1831, in the civilization of Texas, has, in 1903, bereft of limbs and branches, fallen in his beloved Texas, which he assisted to make the pride and home of millions.

The names of 200 dead men are said to be still on the state's pension rolls. We have always heard pensions were a hard thing to make people give up.

A jury of lawyers was empaneled to try a negro for burglary, but the negro entered a plea of guilty, probably depriving the courts of a valuable precedent in, let us say, neat and expeditious work.

Brazos county is entitled to one appointment of a young lady over 16 years of age to the Girls Industrial School at Denton, Texas, for the session beginning Sept. 23, 1903. The appointment is made before June 1 by the County Judge who is ex-officio superintendent of public instruction.

As there is no political excitement of any kind in the state now, the time is opportune for the legislature to consider coolly whether it is just to charge a man an ad valorem tax on his merchandise and then charge him an occupation tax for disposing of it.—Galveston News.

DISTRICT COURT.

The Criminal Docket Taken Up—Two Pleas of Guilty Entered.

District court convened yesterday morning for the third week with the largest attendance of interested persons seen this term.

The criminal docket was taken up and the work of the week opened with two pleas of guilty. Clark Hudson, colored, plead guilty to burglary and was given two years in the penitentiary. Will Wright, also colored, admitted the theft of two bales of cotton and was given two years.

Perry Woods, another negro, was placed on trial charged with the theft of eight head of hogs. The case occupied only a short time and Woods was acquitted. So great was his delight that he jumped up laughing and clapping his hands and thanked the jury. The incident was so amusing that judge, jury, attorneys and spectators joined in an uproar of laughter, amid which court was adjourned for dinner.

The jury for the week is as follows: Sim. Edge, W. R. Parker, H. Z. T. Wilson, Walter Higgs, W. Wiprecht, Burpo Smith, H. H. Henry, John Pate, Jap Prater, W. A. Deaton, J. T. Cartledge, J. H. McCullough, T. A. Searcy, T. A. Hensarling, Frank Goodson, Gus. Stevener.

The case of Will Lane, charged with receiving stolen property, went to trial yesterday afternoon.

COLLEGE MATTERS.

Visit of the Legislators—Gave Promise of Support—Other Notes.

The visiting legislators who arrived Saturday evening, spent Sunday morning in looking over the College grounds and equipments. In the afternoon an open air concert was given in their honor by the cadet band, after which the distinguished gentlemen were called upon to address the audience. Several of the legislators responded and with words of praise expressed themselves as being in thorough sympathy with the work being done by this College and promising it their support. As the train on which they were to leave was soon due all of the representatives did not have time to speak, which fact was much regretted.

There were fifteen members of the house headed by Speaker Neff, and accompanied by a number of charming ladies, wives and daughters of members. They arrived Saturday afternoon, under charge of Dr. Fountain, and were escorted from the depot to the mess hall, where a most inviting supper was served them.

The chemical department of the College is now domiciled in its new quarters in the Chemical-Veterinary building. The Civil Engineering department will soon move into the rooms recently occupied by the Chemical department.

After running on "College time" during the winter term the College is back on standard time again.

TEXAS THE PLACE.

The passenger department of the Southern Pacific at Houston received recently from a man in a small Kansas town a rather unique letter, which presented an opportunity for reply, such as could only come from Texas. The letter read as follows:

"Mr. Morse—sir please send me turns and Prices on land in Texas where By a man without cash can get a home and Oblige."

Colonel Morse in his characteristic manner, appreciated the sincerity of the request, and answered in kind:

"No man," said he in his letter, "who is without cash, need come to Texas in fear of want. If he has a strong body and the means to get here the country will do the rest. You can come to Texas without a dollar, as so many others have done, and if you are willing to work and anxious to succeed, you can own your own home, and that in a short while.

"The country wants such men as you to work in her fields. Labor is in demand everywhere and is well paid. You can readily find employment and by thrift and industry you can get a home and in turn be an employer of others and help them get their homes. There is room for all and work for all in Texas. Yours very truly, S. F. B. Morse."

Stoddard was a guest of honor at the Scottish Rite celebration in Galveston last week, and on yesterday was exhibiting to some of his friends an elaborate and beautiful burnt leather medal presented to him as a memento of his wonderful feat of eating 1234 oysters at the oyster roast given to entertain the visitors. The medal includes several pieces of leather in different forms beautifully inscribed and decorated, and tied together with ribbon. The center piece shows the Austrian double eagles. Gen. Stoddard says the funny part about it was that he went from Beaumont to Galveston too late for the feast and did not get any oysters at all, but he no doubt feels better and is able to appreciate the beautiful souvenir more than if he had really eaten all of the succulent bivalves credited to him.

Mr. I. F. Killgore arrived from Dallas Sunday and is spending a few days in Bryan looking after his affairs. He is very grateful to the kind friends and to all others for the assistance and sympathy attending his wife's illness and death. He reached Dallas in time for her burial which took place there Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Greenwood cemetery. She was perfectly preserved and natural to the last. Mr. Killgore was first informed of her death by the conductor of the train on which he was going to El Paso. Until that moment he believed her to be enjoying good health. Conductors Anderson and Hamlin, who rendered invaluable services to their absent friend during the trying, ordeal, and accompanied Mrs. Killgore's remains to Dallas, have returned.

The great demand for hog wire among the farmers of Brazos and adjoining counties is very encouraging and leads to the supposition that they are determined to raise hogs, and to do this of course they are going into crop diversification to produce feed-stuffs, and taken altogether it means prosperity for the country.

Howell, who has been in correspondence with Mr. Joe Lee Jameson, district deputy grand exalted ruler of the order of Elks, told the Eagle reporter yesterday that he had forwarded the necessary papers and information to Mr. Jameson, and the latter has replied that he will recommend to the grand exalted ruler that dispensation be granted for instituting a lodge at Bryan, in which event Mr. Jameson will do the work. The sentiment here and at College appears to be very strongly in favor of the plan and it is believed the lodge will be instituted in a very short time.

TYNER'S RESIGNATION.

Washington Post States That It Is Soon to Be Asked For.

Washington, March 16.—The Post says: It is announced that Mr. James N. Tyner, assistant attorney general for the postoffice department will be requested in the near future to tender his resignation, but the announcement is accompanied by the statement that this action will have no bearing on the complaint filed with the president by T. C. Campbell of Cincinnati, an attorney representing several of the turf concerns, whose affairs recently have been aired in the courts. Mr. Tyner is incapacitated by illness from performing the duties of his office and it is said his resignation will be requested solely on that account. Mr. Tyner is seventy-seven years of age and suffered a stroke of paralysis last July and in December had a relapse. Mr. Tyner denounces as absurd and ridiculous the charges that there was wrong doing in connection with the decisions by his office respecting the rights of turf investment companies to use the mails.

WRIGHT CASE.

Some Startling Testimony Is Likely to Be Brought Out in the Matter.

London, March 16.—John Flower, chairman of the shareholders' committee, which instigated the prosecution of Whittaker Wright, a director of the London and Globe corporation, who was arrested Sunday on his arrival at New York from France, says: "I see Wright is quoted as saying he had a powerful protector in an exalted quarter. That statement is not new to us. It is the keynote of the whole case. Prior to the failure of the London and Globe, certain persons maintained Wright was in possession of letters from leading members of the English royal family, showing they are mixed up in his transactions. We have no documentary proof of this. Wright himself is probably the only man in the world who can prove it. If he has such letters they ought now to be in the possession of the New York police, as we suppose they searched his effects, and Wright is not likely to let a powerful weapon of defense get out of his personal keeping. Within a few weeks the chief issue in the Wright case will be the question of complicity or otherwise of the most exalted personages in the empire in Wright's financial and other schemes. We do not anticipate any difficulty in obtaining his extradition, but if what Wright's friends maintain turns out to be true, genuine prosecution will become an extremely delicate matter. We believe, however, the lawyers at present engaged will sift the matter to the bottom, regardless of any consideration."

Attorney General Finlay in the house of commons said the crown would pay the cost of extraditing Wright, and payment by the crown of the whole expenses of proceedings will be considered. His prosecution, however, will be left in the hands of the official receiver of the London and Globe corporation.

Will Waive Extradition.

New York, March 16.—Whittaker Wright says he will waive extraditions and return to England.

Wright when arraigned said the amount lost did not exceed 4,000,000 pounds, and that it was legitimately lost.

POISON IN CHAMPAGNE.

Enough in a Bottle to Have Instantly Killed One Hundred People.

New York, March 16.—Detectives in New York and several members of a Chicago detective agency have been at work attempting to discover a mysterious person who sent to John C. Fisher, a well known theatrical manager of this city, a quart bottle of champagne charged with enough hydrocyanic acid and strychnine to kill instantly 100 men.

It was only by the merest chance that Mr. Fisher and three friends escaped death. The bottle was opened and the contents poured into glasses before it was noticed that it had a peculiar look and smell.

Mr. Fisher had the contents of the bottle analyzed, and it was found that the wine contained 2.0116 grains of hydrocyanic acid in the fluid ounce, and 22.5564 grains of strychnine, or enough of the two poisons to have produced sudden death had any of the champagne been even touched to the tongue.

A young and handsome woman figures conspicuously in the case. According to credited information this young woman took the poison package to the Chicago express office and forwarded it in person.

TWO REGISTRARS.

This Seems to Be the Present Prevalence of El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., March 16.—Judge Waddell of the district court handed down his decree here in the injunction suit against Registrar W. M. Peticalas. The petition for the injunction is to restrain Peticalas from acting because he was appointed by the city council, was dismissed. The court declared that Peticalas' appointment was legal and that he had as much right to serve as J. C. Jones, the registrar appointed by the county commissioners. Both registrars will continue to act and to issue certificates. The decision created great excitement in political circles here. Registrar Jones was appointed by one Democratic faction and Peticalas by the other.

Concession Granted Stillwell.

Austin, March 16.—A dispatch from Chihuahua, Mex., says that the Mexican government has granted a concession to Arthur E. Stillwell, president of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad, for the utilization of the timber on 2,000,000 acres of land situated in the western part of that state. It is the purpose of the railroad company to establish a number of large mills in the timber region through which the road will pass.

Brained an Inmate.

Louisville, Ky., March 16.—William Hamilton, a negro who was taken to the city hospital suffering from pneumonia, became violently insane on religion and overcame his attendant, George Campbell, caught up a chair and brained France Winder, an insane inmate sixty years of age. Dr. Bronner, who attempted to subdue Hamilton, was also slightly hurt. Campbell received a few minor bruises. Hamilton was finally overpowered and was placed in irons.

Says Mrs. Fair Died Last.

New York, March 16.—A new witness in the Fair will case has turned up. His name is Lucien Metz, and he arrived from Havre on the French liner La Lorraine. He will testify, he says, that Mrs. Charles L. Fair died after her husband in the automobile accident which killed them both near Paris on Aug. 14 last. Metz says he saw the accident, as he was near the spot at the time, and says he heard Mrs. Fair groan after her husband was dead.

BRAVE SEAMEN.

Entire Crew of the Dolphin Went to the Rescue of Some Parties.

Havana, March 16.—While the secretary of the navy, Mr. Moody, and his party were making a visit on shore Sunday afternoon a squall of tremendous violence swept over the harbor. It became as dark as night and the wind and downpour was terrific. Commander Stoney of the Dolphin, realizing the peril to the small boats in the harbor during such a squall, called for volunteers to rescue. The entire crew of the Dolphin responded. Boats were instantly manned and sent off. The launch returned with four half drowned Cubans, and the captain's gig with another, who was lifted aboard apparently lifeless, but later was resuscitated. The courage and heroic action on the part of the Americans are especially commended, as the British ships did not rise to the emergency, although one of the capsized boats was much nearer the Aridenna than the Dolphin.

GAS NOT USED.

Mayor and Several Other Evansville Officials Burn Kerosene.

Evansville, Ind., March 16.—Mayor Covert and a number of the members of his cabinet find themselves compelled to discontinue the use of gas in their homes. This comes as a result of their being members of labor unions. Saturday night at midnight, Mayor Covert and other city officers had the gas turned off in their homes and will use only kerosene for lighting or fuel purposes. All were notified by the Central Labor union, which has placed a boycott against the Evansville Gas and Electric Light company, to discontinue the use of gas or be excommunicated by the unions.

IRATE SOLDIERS.

They Attempt to Lynch a Negro Who Stabbed One of Them.

Brackettville, Tex., March 16.—Private W. M. Payne of troop H, twelfth cavalry, was stabbed dangerously by a negro boy Saturday night. Paul Doe was jailed, but about 150 soldiers gathered about the jail with picks and crowbars to take him out and lynch him. Major Kendall of Fort Clark, learning of the trouble, went down with a strong guard and dispersed the soldiers.

BRAVE GIRL.

A Fourteen-Year-Old Miss With a Pistol Causes a Burglar to Flee.

Dallas, March 16.—At the muzzle of a pistol fourteen-year-old Marguerite Laughlin forced a burglar at an early hour Sunday morning to drop the jewelry he had stolen from herself and parents and flee. The man, who was white, was just in the act of leaving the house with his booty when the girl, who had been watching him all the time he was gathering the jewelry, availed herself of an opportunity and covered him with the weapon.

Engineer Met His Death.

Kansas City, Mo., March 16.—The Golden State limited on the Rock Island system collided head on just outside of Dwight, thirty miles west of Topeka. Both engines were damaged badly, and the baggage and mail cars and smoker on the westbound train telescoped.

Engineer Love of the westbound train was killed. Three other members of the westbound crew and three passengers in the smoker and engineer and fireman of the limited were injured, but not seriously.

Policy Changed.

London, March 16.—Several Irish members of parliament addressed demonstrations at Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham and Dundee on the better prospects of an Irish land settlement. John Redmond, speaking at Liverpool said the government Irish land purchase bill offered a great hope of a settlement. The policy of coercion, he added, had changed to a policy of conciliation, but in view of past disappointments the Irish party was not too sanguine.

Eight Fight a Duel.

Paris, March 16.—A novel encounter in which eight men fought with dueling swords without buttons under the same conditions as prevail in actual duels and in which four of the combatants were slightly wounded took place Sunday evening in a private enclosure at Nully, a northeastern suburb of Paris, in the presence of 150 persons.

Damaged the Lion.

Princeton, N. J., March 16.—One of the big bronze lions which guard the entrance of historic Nassau hall was so badly disfigured by a crowd of it can not be satisfactorily repaired.

Hitchcock Declines to Approve.

Washington, March 16.—Secretary Hitchcock has declined to approve any of the leases of oil lands in the Creek and Cherokee nations.
